In a letter dated June 30, 2026 from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Ad Hoc Committee on Matters Concerning the Lopez Group of Companies and received by First Philippine Holdings Corporation (FPH) on July 2, 2026, the committee held that: (i) the guidance previously issued by the SEC Markets Securities and Regulation Department and Office of the General Counsel pertaining to the July 27, 2026 FPH Annual Stockholders' Meeting (ASM) applies only to the parties to the case pending before the Regional Trial Court (Branch 209) of Mandaluyong City (RTC), as well as their successors, representatives, and all persons acting for and on their behalf in Lopez, Inc.; and (ii) the ASM may be conducted as scheduled, with the election of directors as part of the agenda, in a manner consistent with, or not contrary to, the RTC Order of March 16, 2026 extending the Temporary Restraining Order and directing the issuance of a Writ of Preliminary Injunction (WPI), including the prohibition and restraint against the defendants in the RTC case, including their successors, representatives and all persons acting for and on their behalf from: (a) replacing Federico R. Lopez as officer, director or corporate representative in any corporation where Lopez, Inc. holds shares and exercises voting rights through its

President; and (b) committing any act that would render the WPI ineffectual, moot or academic. FPH will be coordinating with the committee and seeking clarification on the implementation of the advice in the light of the WPI and other pending cases, as well as the deadlines and other regulatory requirements for the scheduled ASM on July 27, 2026.
